CASA TURQUESA, PARATY

Once back on dry land, make your base (as Brazilians in the know do) at Casa Turquesa, Paraty's most stylish and exclusive blue-shuttered boutique hotel situated in a tranquil spot by the port. An intimate and beautifully designed space, entering Casa Turquesa is like a long cool drink at the end of a hot and sticky day. On arriving, place your shoes in a basket, don your gifted flip-flops, wiggle your toes and leave the city behind. White contemporary spaces are filled with modern art and whirling cool breezes from fans; gauze-strewn gazebos surround the central plunge pool and rooms and suites are furnished with canopy beds, modern designer furniture, and incredible views of the surrounding sea or mountains. Returning drowsily from your boat, expect to be greeted at this stylish Oasis by home-made cakes and a warm welcome. Cutting edge and charming is a tricky combination to pull off – but Casa Turquesa manages it. It's easy to see why the stressed out business leaders, fashionistas and trendsetters of Sao Paulo flock here repeatedly at the weekends.
